

COME ON YOU FOOTBALL FANS!

Northern Ireland-based canine clothing company Urban Pup has expanded its range to include dog football shirts and matching accessories, endorsed by the Scotland Football Association.

Now dogs owned by Scottish soccer fans can support their national side wearing a retro-styled football shirt, harness, or collar and lead, featuring the team crest. The range is based on the iconic 1967 shirt worn by the squad that beat then world champions England, 3 – 2, at Wembley.

- Key feature: The shirt has an elasticated collar and cuffs and can be personalised with your dog's name and any number.
- Sizes: Shirt: XS (Chihuahua-sized) to XL (Spaniel-sized); harness: XS – XXL; collar: S, M, and L.
- Prices: Shirt: £17.75 (personalised £19.75); harness: £16.95; collar: £13.75; lead: £8.45; collar and lead set: £21.95; harness and lead set: £24.95.

HEAVEN SCENT

Vita Canis has launched a new calming remedy to help dogs cope with post-pandemic anxiety and stress as owners go back to work.

Developed by aromatherapy expert and groomer Jitka Krizova, Comfort Blend creates a soothing environment for dogs.

Beloved by Crufts champions, this 100 per cent natural calming blend boasts a combination of essential oils, including relaxing and refreshing petitgrain, uplifting bergamot, basil, neroli, ylang-ylang, and mandarin, in sweet almond oil with no synthetic pheromones, chemicals, or fragrances.

Rubbed on your dog's chest up to three times a day, Comfort Blend is said to calm dogs struggling with distress, grief, separation anxiety, adjusting to unfamiliar circumstances, and even canine cognitive dysfunction.

- Key feature:

Currently 95 per cent of Vita Canis' ingredients are organic with plans to convert the remaining five per cent.

- Price: £6 (10ml roll-on bottle); £16.20 (100ml bottle).

WEARING WELL!

Inspired by her two rescue terriers, Barney and Sandy, Michelle Burgess has founded Scruffy Little Terrier, an online lifestyle brand selling eco-conscious gifts for dog lovers.

The range includes fun T-shirts emblazoned with Michelle's original slogans, including 'You had me at woof', 'Eat, sleep, walkies, repeat' and 'Dogs rule my world'.

Made from 100 per cent Global Organic Textile Standard (GOTS) organic cotton, these T-shirts are kind to the planet as well as being super-soft and comfortable to wear.

- Key feature: A percentage of the sales of the T-shirts is donated to Scruffy Little Terrier's charity of the year, Winston's Wheels, which helps keep dogs mobile.

- Sizes: XS to 3XL.

- Prices: £27.95 (women's); £29.95 (unisex).

BREATH OF FRESH AIR

British veterinary company nutravet has launched an advanced nutraceutical with a double-action formula to tackle bad breath, tartar, and plaque build-up in dogs.

Combining a unique blend of Ascophyllum nodosum seaweed and decaffeinated green tea extract, nutraplaque is completely free from unnecessary and harmful sugars, gluten, and artificial preservatives, which can cause tooth decay and damage teeth and gums.

Available in easy-to-administer sprinkle capsules, nutraplaque works naturally through a dog's saliva to reduce the amount of new plaque forming and soften existing tartar.

- Key feature: The specially selected Norwegian seaweed used in nutraplaque has been shown to reduce plaque build-up by 35 per cent in just four weeks.

- Prices: £18.49 (60 capsules); £33.49 (120 capsules).

- Available from: Authorised veterinary practices. To find your local stockist, visit www.nutravet.co.uk/where-to-buy-in-the-UK
